

GALA Exhibits features emerging and established artists through a series of exhibitions in temporarily available spaces and empty storefronts, in coordination with the City of Glendale and local property owners interested in promoting the arts.

GALA Exhibits is a curatorial project supported by the City of Glendale and the Glendale Arts & Culture Commission, with funding from the Urban Art Program.

An exhibition of artwork by Erika Lizée and Michael Maas

At 127 Maryland Avenue in Glendale

Reception, Sunday March 15, 4-7 p.m.

On view through March 27, 2015

For more information, visit: www.gala-exhibits.org

For media inquiries, contact:

Alaine Azcona | alaine@azconacommunications.com | (323) 935-4537

Erika Lizée

"...and yet, things continue to unfold"

2013-2015

Acrylic on Duralar
variable dimensions

In this installation, Lizée investigates the relationship between the unknown and known, the invisible and visible, the intangible and tangible. Trompe l'oeil illusions and sculptural acrylic paintings work in conjunction with actual light and shadow to play with the perceptions of the viewer. The installations serve as a metaphor for the journey of our personal and shared life experiences.

<http://erikalizee.com/>

Michael Maas

Alhambra 70

acrylic on wood panels, triptych
80" x 108"

Winter Series Brown & White

acrylic on masonite
48"x 30"

Winter Series Black & Silver
acrylic on masonite
60" x 32"

Alhambra 103
acrylic & oil on canvas
triptych, 72" x 126"

Works taken from the "Alhambra" series of biomorphic abstract paintings.

www.michaelmaas.com